

| INTRO - Run on over intro and stand behind chair, hands on back of it |                                                                                                                    |                                                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Words                                                                 | Move                                                                                                               | Comment                                                                               |
| Naughty boys in nasty schools                                  | Hands on back of chair and lean forward                                                                            |    |
| Headmasters breaking all the rules                             | Still leaning forward, wag right finger                                                                            |    |
| Having fun and playing fools                                   | Put one arm on top of the other along the back of chair (still leaning forward)                                    |    |
| Smashing up the woodwork tools                                 | Lift up arms so hands are beside your head and wiggle hands at sides of ears (still leaning forward on chair back) |   |
| All the teachers in the pub                                    | Stand up straight and walk round to front of chair (right side of chair)                                           |  |
| Passing round the ready rub                                    | Sit down                                                                                                           |  |
| Trying not to think of when                                    | Lean forwards, head in hands                                                                                       |  |

|                                                             |                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| The lunchtime bell will ring again                   | Clasp hands together and look up to heaven in desperation.                                                                |                       |
| Chorus                                               |                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                          |
| Oh what fun we had                                   | Stand up                                                                                                                  |                       |
| But did it really turn out bad                       | Walk round to the back of the chair (right side of chair)                                                                 |                       |
| All I learnt in school was                           | Hands on back of chair, lean forward, move body to right then left (side-to-side body move but hands still on chair back) | Right then left  |
| How to bend not break the rule                       | Same body move as above but twice as quick                                                                                | Right, left, right, left                                                                                 |
| Oh what fun we had, But at the time is seemed so bad | Hands still on chair back stand up straight, then down (bent knees) – four bars, up, down, up down                        | Up Down Up Down |
| Trying different ways To make a difference to        | Stand up straight and go off doing the Madness walk                                                                       |                                                                                                          |